

Advisory Contract

This contract is made and entered into as of the _____ [Date] by and between Eagle Investors LLC, an investment adviser (the "Adviser"), and _____ [Client Name], the "Client."

1.Services to be Provided

Eagle Investors will provide investment research and financial advice regarding options, stock, digital assets, and cryptocurrency trading to fee-based Subscribers ("Subscribers") via the internet and through the firm's online platform. The Firm does not provide tailored investment advice to its Subscribers or manage accounts. Recommendations are purely impersonal, and it is up to the client to decide if an investment is suitable.

Eagle Investors LLC's investment advice is non-discretionary as the firm does not make investment decisions on the client's behalf. Rather, the firm provides impersonal recommendations and guidance, leaving the final decision-making process and execution to the client. This non-discretionary advice is available to our Subscribers via ongoing fee-based subscription. Due to the client maintaining full control of their accounts, it is the client's decision if they want to impose restrictions on investing in certain securities or types of securities.

We do not currently participate in any Wrap Fee Programs.

Currently, we do not have regulatory assets under management, and we do not expect to maintain client assets under management.

2.Term of the Contract

This contract shall commence on _____ [Date] and shall renew on a monthly or annual basis, depending on the client's selected subscription plan, unless sooner terminated as provided herein.

3. Fee Schedule

The Fee will range from $76 monthly to $760 annually (not a % or for management but for the subscription). The fee includes recommendations of digital assets and cryptocurrencies. Eagle Investors does not currently charge a performance-based fee for any investment recommendations, including those related to digital assets and cryptocurrencies.
